A Life Remembered

I haven't gone far - just moved on to the next room.
Life holds many facets - this earth is only one.
Call me by my old familiar name, and speak of me with warmth.
Think of me now, out on the ocean, where the sun is warm and I've gone fishing.

Smile when you remember our little jokes
and the laughter we shared.
Let my name be spoken, without sadness
- for I am still near, just out of sight.

Memories live on in the hearts of those he touched.
He was truly loved - so very much.
And we'll hold him close and miss him dearly,
until we meet again.
